Description: The gentle throaty purr of mower on a Saturday morning was instantly brought to mind as Brian lifted the glass to his nose. "You know what I mean," he said with a wry smile. The fresh essence of cut grass on canvas of light dew and gently disturbed earth comes forth as this wine opens. Following is solid push of citrus zest and gooseberry that provides a crystal brightness to the wine. On the palate the racy acidity keeps the tangy flavours focussed within a frame of luscious tree fruit. One intangible is the feeling of glorious abandon that the wine provides just like laps with a mower. You know what I mean?
