Harvest & Winemaking notes:

Isle of Beauty is the evocative name given to the French island of Corsica, located in the Mediterranean Sea. This is where winemaker David Clouston learnt his craft and became passionate about rosé.

David's heroic approach to making rosé uses many varieties from grapes grown on plots dedicated to serious rosé production. This makes for a distinctive, dry, vibrant, salmon-coloured rosé for which Two Rivers is celebrated.

Winemakers: David Clouston & Sanna Stander

Tasting notes:

Light copper salmon in colour, this Mediterranean style rosé has fresh herb aromas of wild thyme, liquorice plant and marzipan, overlaying nuances of orange blossom, white peach and mandarin. The zesty palate exudes fleshy tamarillo, citrus pith and watermelon with touches of spice and wet stone. This sophisticated rosé is perfectly poised and complex, delivering a briny fresh, clean and dry finish.

An ideal pairing with all Mediterranean cuisine.
